POLICE BUSINESS.—The magistrates summoned for yesterday were Messrs. Gilchrist, Henderson, and J. R. Holden. The latter gentleman, however, was the only one of the three who attended, and by him most of the business was performed. In the cases which required a second magistrate he was assisted by Messrs. Edward Flood and O'Neil Brenan, the latter appearing for the first time in his magisterial capacity. The Justices summoned for to-day are Messrs. Josephson, Mitchell, and Moir. The police list of yesterday contained in all twenty-three cases for adjudication—ten upon the free list, five upon the drunkards' list, and eight upon the summons list. Most of these, were of a trivial nature.

FROM OUR LONDON CORRESPONDENT.

LONDON, September 4, 1849.

THOUGH I dare say you will receive in due course from your agents the parliamentary papers lately published touching the "Titles and rank of Roman Catholic Prelates in the Colonies," I have thought it might nevertheless be well to post to you another copy.

[Our correspondent gives a summary of the contents of the document, which has been published at length in our columns.]

Prospectuses have been issued by an "Eastern Archipelago (Borneo) Company." It appears this Company have got their charter, and their object is comprised in the "acquiring, holding, settling, cultivating, planting, letting, farming, selling, mortgaging, or otherwise dealing with, and making a profit of, land, &c.; and of the produce in the Island of Labuan, and lands adjoining (Borneo), for sinking mines, pits, and quarries, and getting and raising coal, stones, earths, ores, minerals, and metals; and trading therein, and with any of the authorities or inhabitants; and for exporting the produce therefrom, and of importing therein articles necessary or expedient; and for purchasing or hiring British and other ships for these purposes." This is promising enough you will say. But it appears their great immediate object is to work certain coal mines in Labuan, the sale of which to the steam liners and war steamers in the Eastern seas, they compute will alone yield a "clear annual gain" exceeding £17,000. An agreement has been concluded with the Crown for a lease of the coal under 500 acres of land at Labuan, and a grant obtained of the coal on the mainland of Borneo, extending through a district of 150 miles. The quality of the coal has been pronounced excellent by the Coal Committee, appointed by the Bengal Government, and by various naval officers, who have submitted it to careful examination. The Government Mineral Surveyor has estimated the prime cost of Borneo coal put on board vessels in Borneo river at less than 3s. 6d. per ton. It appears that the steam-vessels of the Royal Navy and of the East India Company attached to the Straits Station have for some time past been [illegible] with Labuan coal, [illegible] partially supplied [illegible] and in one of Captain [illegible]'s latest letters from Singapore, he observes—"the Auckland is a fine steamer; and as she stows twenty days' fuel, can always carry enough to bring her from Labuan to Singapore, and take her back again, so that she consumes nothing but Labuan coal." In the Government contract with the Peninsular and Oriental Company for the conveyance of the China Mails, the Admiralty have reserved the power of compelling the mail-steamers to call at Labuan. The Company estimate that the annual demand for Labuan coal will shortly amount to 47,000 tons, thus made up—the steamers of the Navy, 5000 tons; of the East India Company, 5000 tons; of the Peninsular and Oriental Company, 12,000 tons; India and Australia Mail Steam Packet Company, 4000 tons; Canton Steam Navigation Company, 4000 tons; Philippine Spanish Government, 6000 tons; Dutch navy, 5000 tons; British and Foreign merchant service, 6000 tons.

That Labuan and Borneo afford good coal, is no doubt a well authenticated fact, and the circumstance is one of great interest and importance in connexion with steam navigation in those seas. But how far the Company will carry their operations to a successful result is a matter with respect to which experience shows that it is wise to entertain considerable doubt. It is confessedly about the most unpropitious time for the last twenty years to establish any new undertaking; and I much doubt whether the necessary amount of capital will be got together. The commencing capital is £200,000, in 2000 shares of £100 each; with power to the Company to augment to £400,000, and, with consent of the Board of Trade, to any amount. Mr. Macgregor, the member for Glasgow, is the Chairman.

I am now going to give you some account of another Company, more nearly connected with Australian interests. I have been appriced for some time past of its being in course of concoction, but was not at liberty to communicate particulars. Now, however, I see by some of the small London colonial journals that the company is provisionally registered, and its principles made public. This Company, then, is "THE COLONISATION ASSURANCE COMPANY, for applying the principle of Life Assurance to the purposes of Colonisation." You will, perhaps, shake your heads at this, and wonder what it can mean. I will try and enlighten you. The difference between "The Colonisation" and an ordinary Life Assurance Company is said to consist in this:—A Life Assurance Company agrees to pay, say £100, at a certain fixed period, or at death, in consideration of an individual paying certain premiums pending his life. The Colonisation Assurance Company invests its capital in land, and agrees to give a party immediate possession of, say one hundred acres, on condition of his paying certain annual amounts, to cease at his death, or sooner, if so arranged. Thus the Company will place the emigrant in possession of immediate value,—namely money represented by acres;—and will hold that value as a security, receiving thereon periodical annual payments, according to age, sufficient to cover the contingency of the life lapsing before such period as would be calculated. When he dies the land becomes the property of his family or representatives. If he neglect payment, he would be in the position of a tenant holding of the Company, and they would resume possession; while the party keeping faith would have the satisfaction of knowing that, whenever he dies, his estate, with the increased value his labour and capital had bestowed upon it, would become the property of his family for ever, without further payment.

Such is the way in which the Company explain their project. You will see that, in effect, the said Company will assume two distinct functions. They act as an assurance Company; only instead of waiting until the death of the insured to pay him the amount due on that contingency, they give him while yet alive the value in land in the colonies. Then of that land they become the mortgagees. The annual payment by the tenant must represent premiums and interest on capital combined.

I pass no opinion on this scheme. I leave you, with your colonial experience, to determine how it is likely to work.

But the Company meditate other operations than merely buying waste land and disposing of it in prepayment of policies. Buying the land of the Crown, they will be entitled to nominate free passengers, according to the amount expended; and this right they propose extensively availing themselves of, either direct, or by assigning it to their assured mortgagors.

I understand Mr. Hutt, formerly Governor of West Australia (and before his appointment to that office, I believe, one of the South Australian Commissioners) is one of the originators of this scheme; and I suspect it is contemplated chiefly confining its operations to the Swan River settlements; though, professedly, the Company will not be confined to the investment of its capital in one country. The capital I believe is set down at £100,000; to be raised in shares of £20 each.

In home politics things are as dull and quiet as when I last wrote. Abroad rebellion seems at last repressed; and there is arising some apprehension that the different armies having subdued their own countrymen, may now be turned against each other—civil wars giving place to a general war, in spite of VICTOR HUGO and RICHARD COBDEN.

LONDON, September 20, 1849.

In the midst of the continued dulness of the season, the intelligence of the proceedings at the Cape received within the last few days has come somewhat opportunely for the London journals, which have one and all, if I mistake not, taken advantage of it to indulge in reflections on the colonial policy of Downing-street, and the increasing difficulties with which the subject of secondary punishment is now beset. How the tidings of the doings at the Cape—the pacific rebellion of the colonists and the concessions of the gallant Governor, Sir HARRY SMITH—have been received by the Government people, I have been unable to learn; for there is nobody in town just now from whom any political gossip can be gathered. But it would seem that the Hecate, steam sloop, was on the instant ordered off to the Cape, when, after having speedily completed her equipment, the order appears to be countermanded. The first order, must, I imagine, have proceeded from Lord JOHN RUSSELL himself, without concert with any of his colleagues, as Lord GREY was in attendance upon the QUEEN at Balmoral, and Sir GEORGE GREY was up in the North. Nor do I see how Lord GREY could well have had anything to do with the counter order. The truth must be that after the first surprise was over the matter was seen to be one requiring grave deliberation, and the old maxim of "the more hurry the less speed" was doubtless held to apply on this as on most other occasions. At this moment—unless the Cape colonists have relented—the unhappy ticket-of-leave men sent thither with the sure prospect, as they were instructed, of being at large, with good wages, must be performing a supererogatory penance on board hulks at Simon's Bay. What can be done with them? Will they be pardoned, on account of the grievous disappointment and extra punishment? But pardoned or not, where will they be sent to? To land them at the Cape seems impossible. That would be to recal Sir HARRY SMITH, and to retake the Cape! To send them to New South Wales is equally out of the question, after Sir CHARLES FITZ ROY's request to suspend all further transportation to your colony until the meeting of your legislature. To send them to Van Diemen's Land seems also out of the question, as it was the state of that colony,—the outcries of the colonists against more convicts being sent there, where already [illegible] were far too many, and the [illegible] there same effect of [illegible] entreaties to the forced the [illegible] local government,—that elegant [illegible] home authorities to proclaim the Cape a place to which convicts might be transported. Will they bring them back again to England, with the alternative of pillage or starvation? It is really a perplexing question. But it is a lamentable thing to see the most flourishing, orderly, religious, and civilised country in the world hawking ship loads of its criminals about the globe! I believe this sad result is attributable to this—the attempt to attain a perfect system of penal discipline and secondary punishments, at a very low cost. It was that which brought about the Van Diemen's Land experiment, deluging a small settlement with all the convicts of the British empire, and engendering a state of things which has perhaps made transportation to any but mere penal settlements a wholly impracticable thing henceforth for ever!

There is no doubt that every effort is now being made to reduce the number of transported offenders, and to resort to the penitentiary system. A large penitentiary prison is being erected at Wandsworth, and I believe this is the forerunner of many such in other parts of the country. You perhaps are already aware that we have now a functionary with an office in London—the Inspector-General of Prisons, at present Colonel JEBB of the Engineers. The Colonel (I happen to know) has a great idea of the men at Portland; and thinks they are a very different set from the convicts of olden times, all in consequence of the judicious discipline and management adopted at that establishment But I have no faith—or, at least, very far from an implicit one, in penitentiary reports. There is no telling what a convict is until he has been a year or two back in the world. And colonists may object to the experiment being made at their risk.

You will, perhaps, before receipt of this have had to notify the arrival of the Artemesia, the ship conveying emigrants for the Australian Agricultural Company. I am told she did not take away more than fifty-five emigrants. The effort of the Company to bring its possessions into popular request, for the purpose of extensive emigration, I hear has been quite a failure. I see they have given over advertising. They have not managed the thing well some how; but I am told one main cause of their want of success has been the opposition of the Dispatch newspaper. On what grounds this opposition rests I know not, as I very rarely see that journal; but it has a very extensive circulation, not only among the working classes, but among the smaller shopkeepers. The fact I am assured is undoubted that the Dispatch has much damaged the colonising scheme of the Company. Captain KING, who you will have heard some time ago, has been removed from the management of the Company's affairs in the colony, is about returning to Sydney immediately,—not, I believe, particularly well-pleased with the Board at King's Arms Yard. I hear that his account of the land and capabilities of the Company's territory by no means coincided with the views of the Directors.

The Emigrant, a weekly newspaper, started within the last two years, as likely to be a paying publication in these emigrating times, has just expired. It lasted longer than most journals of the kind.

You will have noticed the tone of the Times on the Cape question. On this, as on most other subjects, you may understand from it the estimate of the Times as to the future opinions of the country. The Times, no doubt, calculates that any anti-transportation policy will be most distasteful in England; and it seems prepared, if need be, to go to the length of renouncing the colonies, if they will not aid in the dispersion of British malefactors. It would seem to regard that as one of the appropriate functions of colonies—a set off against the expense to which colonies subject the mother country.

I hear the Government intend encouraging the emigration of a small class of farmers to Van Dieman's Land, by giving them free passages and small grants of land; the expense being met out of the parliamentary grant of £30,000 voted last Session in aid of emigration to those colonies to which convicts have been sent.

I am glad to say that the cholera returns begin at length to show that that dreadful malady is on the decline The alarm had quite grown into a panic. Yesterday London wore a singular appearance. North of the river there was the same bustle and activity usually observed. South of it the shops were all closed, and all was more still than on a Sunday. It was there a day of humiliation, as appointed by the Bishop of Winchester. Here, on the North, next Sunday is appointed for the like purpose, by the Bishop of London.

While I am writing the receipt of some Australian journals apprises me of the meeting of the Swan River colonists, at which they determined that it is advisable to apply to Her Majesty's Government to erect their colony "into a regular penal settlement with the necesary Government establishment and expenditure." I had heard before, casually, that something of the kind had taken place, but I had no expectation to see any thing so decisive as the above. Perhaps the Swan people may be selected, after all, for the Cape refugees.

I have already mentioned "the Eastern Archipelago Company" to you. It really seems progressing, though still inviting applications for shares. I send you its first report, dated the 10th ultimo.

For years there has not been so little of a political nature interesting to this country as at the present moment. I refer just now to domestic politics. There are indeed no politics at all of that kind. The quid nunes are reduced to "the Roman question" alone. The storm seems blowing over in the rest of Europe—though he is the wise man at the present day who indulges in no predictions. In Canada order seems again restored, after being again threatened.

I find this will go by the same vessel as my last, the Roman Emperor—but I hear you will get both my letters quicker by this than any other vessel, though sailing some time before her.

REPORT.

London, 10th August, 1849.

At so early a stage of the existence of this Company, the Shareholders will hardly expect this, the first Report of the Directors, to announce extensive operations as yet effected, involving considerable outlay, or promising immediate returns and dividends.

At any time, and under any circumstances, the Directors would have adopted the path of economy and prudence; but during the successive and protracted convulsions which have now for a long time so violently disturbed all the political and mercantile affairs of nearly the whole civilised world, it was impossible for the Directors to be too cautious in their management of the affairs of this Company.

A careful observance of this policy necessarily precludes any accounts of considerable proceedings of the Company up to this time, and reduces the present task of the Directors to scarcely more than a reference to their introductory measures, and a congratulation of the Shareholders on this undertaking having escaped the dangers which have overwhelmed so many others, not guided by the same rules of caution and frugality.

The Directors have given their first attention to the coal mines at Labuan, to the working of which they have considered it prudent to limit for the present the operations of the Company.

The Directors deemed it important to avoid delay in having assured to this Company definitively the 500 acres of coal district in Labuan, agreed to be granted by the Crown, taking actual possession thereof, and ascertaining the best mode of working the same.

The Directors therefore despatched to Labuan a superintendent to survey, take [illegible] possession of, and [illegible] a full report upon the coal mines, and the best steps for their advantageous working, and also to superintend the works.

Mr. Motley, who produced the highest testimonials, was selected for this important mission; and all requisite maps, papers, and instructions were entrusted to Mr. Motley, previously to his embarking by the February mail.

Mr. Motley's preliminary report, dated 24th May last, has recently arrived; but there had not been time sufficient to enable him to make a full report, which may be shortly expected.

He was actively engaged in the fulfilment of his instructions; but, until the arrival of the stores, (now on the way to Labuan), he could not efficiently commence the coal workings. He had been in communication with the Government authorities, and had taken the necessary steps in regard to the selection of the coal district.

Mr. Motley's report of the value of the coal is highly satisfactory. He says:—"The quality of the coal, proper attention being paid to working and selecting it, is beyond all praise; I certainly never saw any to equal it for steam purposes."

The Directors have furnished Mr. Motley with sufficient means to enable him to commence working the Mines; and the Eastern Archipelago Company's agents at Singapore, Messrs. Shaw, Whitehead, and Co., have been instructed to co-operate with Mr. Motley, in supplying the requisites incident to such a commencement.

All accounts confirm the favourable opinion already published of the Labuan coal; and the fact that, in April last, Labuan coal sold in the market at Singapore at seven dollars per ton, seems conclusive on this head.

The China Mail steamers will, in all probability, very soon be required to call at Labuan; and, from its advantageous position, no sooner will the works of the Company be known to be in full and regular operation, than a considerable demand for Labuan coal must follow with certainty and regularity.

The balance-sheet made up to 30th June, shows the monetary affairs of the Company; and from it the shareholders will see that the expenses have been on the most rigid scale of economy.

Hitherto no call beyond the deposit of £5 per share has been made; but a further call of £5 per share will be made in October next.

By the constitution of this Corporation, all the present Directors, excepting the Managing Director, Mr. Wise, vacate their functions at this present Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. They are all eligible for re-election, and offer themselves accordingly.

In addition to the present number, Sir John N. R. Campbell, K.C.H., Lieut.-Col. the Hon. G. T. Keppel, M.P., and Colonel Rawdon, M.P., have severally offered themselves as candidates for the office of Directors.

The charter, deed of settlement, correspondence, accounts, and balance-sheet of the Company, are open for the inspection of the shareholders daily, during business hours, at the offices of the Company, 34, Cornhill.

(Signed) JOHN MACGREGOR,
Chairman.

Those who furnished assistance of any kind to Vlacco, or his band, will do well to recollect that martial law is no longer a mere word. It is in full force at Scala, and the adjacent districts of Coronus, Valtes, Racli, Leo, and Catolio. It is in force throughout Omala, Icossimia, Talamies, Samos, and Pirgi; and their inhabitants will learn, if the slightest provocation be given, the terrible powers with which officers are now armed. It will be most painful to me to see those powers long or largely used, and I have abstained on that account from proclaiming any district that has not been actually visited by the rebels. But whatever be necessary to crush the insurrection must be done. The Government feels that it has a sacred duty to perform towards those who have trusted it, and who are entitled to its aid, and in the execution of that duty I shall shrink from nothing that I find requisite for the complete re-establishment of the authority of the law.

H. G. WARD, High Commissioner.

Thursday, 1 P.M.

An engagement took place last night, at half-past nine, with the whole band of rebels, headed by Theodore Vlacco and the priest Nodaro, who attempted to pass the detachment commanded by Captain Coote, in two lines, firing a volley as they went by. Vlacco's party was so closely pursued that nine prisoners were taken; amongst them were Spiro Vlacco, his cousin, and Michaele Cucotroi, upon whom immediate justice will be done.

TESTIMONIALS.

Commissariat Office, Sydney,
9th June, 1848.

Sir,—Having forwarded to the Mauritius the samples of the preserved meats prepared at your manufactory, I enclose for your information an extract from a letter received from the officer to whom those articles were consigned.

(Signed) W. G. RAMSAY.

To Mr. Joseph, George-street.

"The preserved meats are excellent, fully equal to any I have tasted in England."

This is to certify that meats preserved by Mr. Joseph, of Sydney, were tried on board H.M.S Rattlesnake, on her previous trip, and found to be very good in quality, and well adapted for long voyages. I have, in consequence, purchased of him five thousand pounds, for the use of the crews of H.M. ships Rattlesnake and Bramble, during the purposed voyage to Torres Straits.

Given under my hand, on board H.M.S. Rattlesnake, at Sydney, New South Wales, this 2nd April, 1848.

(Signed) FREDERICK BRADY,
Paymaster and Purser.

Wellington, New Zealand,
20th February, 1848.

Dear Sir,—I received some of your canisters of preserved meats and soups. I have tried your excellent manufacture, and without wishing in any way to be complimentary, I can assure you that it is the opinion of myself and many others, even more competent judges, that your exertions have been crowned with well-merited success; and that the establishment under your directions takes rank amongst the most useful of those which have of late years been introduced into this quarter of the world.

(Signed) D. G. LARDNER, D.A.C.G.

To Mr. M. Joseph, Camperdown.

Sydney, 9th May, 1848.

Sir,—I have pleasure in certifying that your preserved meats are equal, if not superior, to those imported. Some which I opened six months after shipping were in excellent condition.

(Signed) JOHN KEEN,
Master of the whaling barque Fame.

To Mr. M. Joseph, Sydney.

Government House,
Sydney, May 7th, 1849.

Sir,—I am desired by his Excellency the Governor to inform you that his Excellency has every reason to be satisfied with the preserved meats you supplied him with.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
F. N. C. MASTERS,
Aide-de-Camp.

To Mr. Joseph.

H.M. Surveying Ship Rattlesnake,
Sydney, 4th May, 1849.

A large quantity of preserved meats from the manufactory of Mr. Joseph, of Camperdown, near Sydney, having been purchased for the use of the crew of this ship during the past year, enables me to give a very favourable opinion of their quality, they having been generally preferred to those sent from England.

(Signed) OWEN STANLEY,
Captain.

H.M. ship Havanah,
Sydney, May 14th, 1849.

Sir,—In answer to your note requesting a certificate from me as to the quality of your preserved meats, I beg to acquaint you that your mock turtle soup, soup and bouilli, and stewed beef, were very good indeed.

(Signed) JOHN ERSKINE,
Captain.

Sydney, 14th December, 1849.

I hereby certify that the preserved meats supplied me by Mr. Joseph, of Camperdown, the last voyage to England, turned out excellent, and were certainly quite as good, if not superior, to those bought in England.

(Signed) HARRISON,
Commander of Johnstone.

Ship Waterloo,
December 20th, 1849.

Sir,—With reference to your request of yesterday, I beg to say I shall require the same quantity of soups from your establishment this present voyage as we had the last; and I feel it my duty, as well as in justice to yourself, to acknowledge how much your soups were admired, both with my passengers and self, during the last two passages to Europe. They certainly were as fine as I ever had. The soup and bouilli I think superior to the generality we get in England, inasmuch as there is not so much vegetable; and I imagine, owing to the dearness of meat in the market at home, preservers are too apt to leave out meat and substitute vegetables, which cannot be the case here. The last voyage from Europe I had to throw many tins of soup and bouilli overboard—they were so sour parties could not partake of them, which I attribute to the very large quantity of vegetables each tin contained.

I remain, Sir,
Your most obedient,
(Signed) H. NEATBY,
Waterloo.

To Moses Joseph, Esq.

H.M.S. Acheron, Sydney,
January 3rd, 1850.

Sir,—I have much pleasure in certifying that the preserved meats sent on board H.M.S. Acheron are of extremely good quality.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) J. LORT STOKES,
Captain.

Barque Hamlet,
January 4th, 1850.

Sir,—I hereby certify that the preserved meats put on board my vessel by you proved of most excellent quality, and, in my own opinion and that of most of the passengers, were fully as good as the English.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) J. WILSON,
Commander.

To Mr. Joseph, Camperdown. 1015

☞ To the Agriculturist of the Hunter River, as well as to those extensively engaged in pastoral pursuits in the Northern districts, this would be a splendid and convenient homestead; whilst to capitalists and others it will not only afford a present handsome rental, but offer the certain advantage attendant upon all the suburban properties of thriving towns, that of being speedily required as building land, and thus yielding those enormous profits which it might appear idle to expect, if a thousand modern instances did not justify the expectation.
A PORTION OF THE PURCHASE-MONEY MAY REMAIN ON MORTGAGE.

THE ESTATE OF KIRK CONNEL, which consists of 2427 acres of purchased land, situated on the Western Road, about 20 miles from Bathurst, and 95 miles from Sydney, in a beautiful country, with a cool and healthy climate, perfectly adapted to the products of Europe.
THE FARM
Is about two and a-half miles off the road, and upon which are erected the following costly improvements, viz:—
Handsome verandah Cottage, containing ten rooms, with detached kitchen, servant's room, &c.
Eight-stalled stable, with coach-house
Excellent store
Large barn
Shearing shed
Numerous huts for men
&c., &c., &c.
A splendid Garden, in first-rate order, abundantly stocked with all the English fruit trees, which are in full bearing, and growing in the greatest perfection.
The whole property is enclosed and subdivided into Paddocks, the extent of fencing being from three to four miles in length.
A short distance from this Farm, and within sight of the house, there is a comfortable
STONE-BUILT COTTAGE,
of four rooms, with small Garden and other conveniences, suitable for an overseer or tenant.
Under the pre-emptive right this property secures a large amount of sheep country of the very first description.
Over the whole estate there is an abundant supply of water at all seasons, and a lead from a spring brought close to the kitchen door, can be turned through the garden for the purpose of irrigation in dry weather. There are also several dams for Sheep-washing, and one of the best Spouts in the colony. The property commands fully two miles of road frontage, now become highly valuable in consequence of the new Land Regulations, a great part of which is suitable for subdivision into small farms, which would let very readily, two being already rented on clearing leases, one of which will bring in next year £20, and the other £8 per annum.
☞ Altogether so valuable a property within the settled districts is rarely to be met with, and in the hands of a resident proprietor it could not fail to prove highly remunerative as an investment, while the comforts of residence, and salubrity of climate, render it a domicile as desirable as is to be found in the most favoured districts of Europe.
SECOND.
"COOLAMIGEL,"
A SPLENDID SHEEP STATION,
WITH ABOUT 5500 SHEEP,
Distant from the Kirk Connel property about fourteen miles, and capable of depasturing from

A good thatched cottage

The runs adjacent to the purchased land, and which are secured under the pre-emptive right, or at the minimum Crown rental, are most abundantly watered—

The Wheaten Bread shall be made in loaves of 2lbs., and the Mixed Bread in loaves of 3½lbs. each, and baked 24 hours before being issued; and parties tendering are requested to observe, that the most rigid adherence to the conditions as to the quality of the Bread, shall be invariably enforced.

4. The Maize Meal shall be similar in quality to the Wheaten Meal, and shall be twice ground.

5. The Vegetables for the Hospitals and other Establishments entitled thereto, shall be supplied in reasonable proportions of Potatoes, Greens, Pumpkins, Onions, Carrots, Turnips, &c.

6. The Rum shall be West India, five per cent. under proof, and to be taken out as required for the service at Sydney, from the Bonded Stores, and upon the Certificate of the Commissariat Officer in charge of the Provision Branch.

7. Correct Scales, Weights, and Measures, to be used, and placed in the most conspicuous part of the Contractor's Stores.

8. The supplies above specified shall all be delivered by the Contractor direct to the Parties or Establishment entitled thereto, upon the written order of the Commissariat Officer in charge of the District, or of the person authorised for that purpose.

9. At the several fixed Stations the Rations for the Troops, the Convict Establishments, and Road and other Parties, shall be delivered by the Contractor by six A.M. in summer, and seven A.M. in winter, at the Barracks, Establishments, or Huts, where the parties to be supplied may be stationed; being, previously to removal from the Contractor's premises, approved by a person authorised for the purpose.

10. The Forage shall be delivered by the Contractor at the Establishment where the horses or cattle are stationed; and in case the whole Ration of Forage be not required or delivered, each of the species shall be reckoned as the proportion of the Ration undermentioned, viz.:—

The Straw .....1-12th.

It shall be at the option of the Commissariat Officer to demand the issue of either Maize, or Barley, or Oats.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

11. Parties tendering may do so by either of the three following modes at their option, viz.:—

1. The whole of the supplies of every description, in each district, may be included in one tender, as at present.
2. Or the supplies may be tendered in subdivisions, as below, by a separate Tender for each sub-division, viz.:—
   1. The Military Ration.
   2. The several Rations for Exiles and Convicts as described from 2 to 11 inclusive.
   3. The Ration of Forage.
   4. The Ration of Fuel and Light.
   5. The Supplies for Hospitals.
   6. The Supplies for Naval Purposes and Penal Settlements.
   7. The Supplies for General Purposes.
3. Or the various articles comprising the several Rations referred to, as well as all those required for Hospitals and other purposes, may be tendered separately or singly, by weight and measure. The undersigned reserving to himself the power of accepting Tenders or supplying by any of these modes which he may find most expedient.

12. Contractors shall have at all times on the spot pointed out for their Stores by the Dep. Com. General, a supply of fourteen days in reserve, in the care of a competent Agent, to whom reference may be had in the contractor's absence, in default of which the Commissariat Officer, or other duly authorised person, may purchase at his, the Contractor's expense, such articles as are not forthcoming; and in the event of repeated failures in this respect, together with other causes of dissatisfaction arising from the bad quality of the supplies, as decided by Boards of Survey or arbitrators, it shall be in the power of the undersigned or his successors in office to cancel the contract and enforce the penalty.

13. In the event of a difference of opinion between the Contractor and the party receiving the supplies, as to the quality, the same is to be decided according to the practice of the service, by a Board of Survey. But in country districts where a Board of Survey cannot be conveniently assembled, the party objecting will name one person as Arbitrator, the Contractor or his agent another, and these two will (previously to any other proceeding on their part), concur in naming a third as Umpire, who, in the event of the Arbitrators not agreeing in opinion, will be called upon for his decision, which shall be final.

14. The only question referred to the Board, or to the Arbitrators, will be, whether or not the article objected to be such as, by his contract, the Contractor is bound to deliver; and if the Board, Arbitrators, or Umpire, shall decide that the Article is not according to the conditions of the contract, it must be immediately replaced by the Contractor, failing which it will be procured, and the expense charged to his account. In cases where the article is of a perishable nature, or from some other cause injury would be sustained, either by the parties to whom the rations are due, or by the Contractor, by waiting for a Board of Survey, the Head of the Department, or the Officer in charge of the party or parties for whom the rations are to be received, shall have power to reject such article or articles as are obviously of inferior quality, or in improper condition, it being distinctly understood that he will be responsible to the Government for so doing; and that the Contractor will have the right to appeal, although, in the mean time, he must take back the rejected article, and supply good in its stead, failing which it will be obtained by the Officer or party requiring it, and the expense charged to the Contractor.

15. It shall be in the power of either party to limit the duration of the Contract, by giving, in writing, a notice of three calendar months to the opposite party, and to end the Contract at the expiration of that period, it being understood that such a notice can be given only from the first day of a month, and within the period for which the Contract is made, or agreed to be made; and not later than the 1st of August.

16. The Contractor shall prepare his own cash account monthly, according to the prescribed form; and shall receive payment on the production thereof, with the requisite vouchers in a complete state, before the termination of the succeeding month, always excepting where any purchase shall have been made under the provisions of Article 14 of these conditions, in which case no payment will be made until the claim of Government shall be fully satisfied.

17. The Contractor shall be bound to furnish his accounts for provisions, &c., issued, within 14 days of the expiration of each month, and the sums so due must be drawn from the Commissariat chest at Sydney, within the succeeding month, otherwise the amount will be considered forfeited to the public.

18. THE VALUE OF ALL PACKAGES SHALL BE INCLUDED IN THE PRICES DEMANDED.

19. Persons wishing to tender are requested to apply either at this office or to the Commissariat officers in charge of the several stations, who will furnish them with printed forms for the purpose, and communicate further particulars; and as adequate security will be required for the signing and due fulfilment of the contracts, each tender has an instrument attached, marked B., which must be signed by two competent securities, and properly witnessed, who shall bind themselves under the fixed penalties as laid down in Article 20, that all the conditions and stipulations of the contract shall be well and duly fulfilled, should the tender be accepted. No tender will be attended to unless made out as above directed.

20. The amounts of the bonds required in the several districts are as follows: if contracted for collectively, viz.:—Sydney, £3000; Parramatta, £1000; Newcastle, £500; Moreton Bay, £500; Port Phillip, £500.

21. The contracts and bonds must be executed on or before the 1st March next, otherwise the penalties will be enforced.

22. Tenders in duplicate, are to be enclosed in a separate envelope, addressed to the undersigned, marked "Supplies for 1850," and no tender made in consequence of this advertisement shall be withdrawn or altered, but notice of those accepted shall be given within eight days of the time of opening.

23. Flour in place of bread to be given for the Military Ration, when required, in the proportion of 14 2-7th ozs. of the former, for 16 ozs. of the latter.

24. The Contractor for the District of Sydney will be bound to furnish the rations and articles particularised under the head of provisions, No. 1 to 16, not only for the purposes specified but also for any other purposes of the Military, Naval, Special, and Convict Services, should there be occasion for it.

TO WOOLGROWERS, SETTLERS, AND WHOLESALE BUYERS OF SLOPS.

DAVID JONES AND COMPANY respectfully call the attention of WOOLGROWERS, SETTLERS, AND OTHERS purchasing supplies for the Bush, to the extensive alterations effected in their establishment, by which they are enabled to afford increased facilities for the inspection of their VARIED and EXTENSIVE STOCK of SLOPS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, and EVERY REQUISITE for UP-COUNTRY USE.

Manufacturing most of their own SLOPS, and possessing the advantage of being represented in the ENGLISH MARKETS by Mr. DAVID JONES, whose large experience has made him intimately acquainted with the requirements of the colonists generally, they confidently assert that their system of doing business will be found fully commensurate with the times, a great reduction having been effected in the prices of most articles, compared with last or any previous season. WOOLGROWERS, SETTLERS, AND OTHERS, who have not yet visited the establishment, are respectfully urged to do so, when they will not fail to observe the many and especial claims it has upon them, the proprietors having spared no effort to continue it, what it has always been, PRE-EMINENTLY the WOOLGROWERS' AND SETTLERS' DEPOT.

WOOL, TALLOW, HIDES, STOCK, AND OTHER COLONIAL PRODUCE, AT A COMMISSION OF ONE PER CENT.

After the experience of several seasons, R. F. need not point out the superiority of this mode of sale over that of sale by private contract, the result having fully borne out an advance of from 10 to 15 per cent.

Cash advances made immediately on the receipt of produce, and supplies furnished, if required.

YOU MAY BE CURED YET;

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

CURE OF RHEUMATISM AND RHEUMATIC GOUT.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Thomas Brunton, Landlord of the Waterloo Tavern, Coatham, Yorkshire, late of the Life Guards, dated September 28th, 1848.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—For a long time I was a martyr to Rheumatism and Rheumatic Gout, and for ten weeks previous to using your medicines, I was so bad as not to be able to walk. I had tried doctoring and medicines of every kind, all to no avail, indeed I daily got worse, and felt that I must shortly die. From seeing your remedies advertised in the paper I take in, I thought I would give them a trial. I did so. I rubbed the Ointment in as directed, and kept cabbage leaves to the parts thickly spread with it, and took the Pills night and morning. In three weeks I was enabled to walk about for an hour or two in the day with a stick, and in seven weeks I could go any where without one. I am now, by the blessing of God and your medicines, quite well, and have been attending to my business for more than seven months, without any symptoms of the return of my old complaint.

Besides my case of Rheumatic Gout, I have lately had proof that your Pills and Ointment will heal any old wound or ulcer, as a married woman living near me, had had a bad leg for four years, which no one could cure, and I gave her some of your Pills and Ointment, which soundly healed it when nothing else would do it. For your information I had the honour to serve my country for twenty-five years in the first regiment of Life Guards, and was eighteen years a Corporal. I was two years in the Peninsula War, and was at the Battle of Waterloo. I was discharged with a pension on the 2nd September, 1833. The Commanding Officer at the time was Colonel Lygon, who is now a General. I belonged to the troop of Captain the Honorable Henry Baring.

NEWS FROM THE INTERIOR.

(From our Correspondents.)

GOULBURN.

POLICE COURT.—Since the 1st of January their Worships have been principally engaged in adjusting matters naturally rising out of the manner in which the lovers of the bottle keep the holidays, which occur at the end and beginning of the year. Several very distressing cases have occurred, one of which was investigated this day at the above Court, and which resulted in a woman being committed to take her trial at the ensuing Circuit Court for shooting at her husband. The circumstances of the case are briefly these: on the 29th ultimo, a man of the name of Hickmot, who resides in a hut in the vicinity of Goulburn, had got in some brandy; but his wife (a strong masculine person) was not able to resist the temptation, made rather free with it, which Hickmot perceived when he came home, and to prevent her finishing the potion, had the remnant, which was in a bottle, put under his head when he retired to rest; his better half, waited in another appartment till she thought her husband was asleep, when she crawled towards the bed, and instead of seizing the brandy bottle, laid hold of a pistol which Hickmot was in the habit of keeping under his pillow loaded. He, not being asleep, laid hold of the brandy bottle. She not having succeeded in getting the bottle discharged the pistol at her husband; the contents entered near the eye; one of the slugs came into the man's mouth. He was removed into Goulburn Hospital; and being considered to be in a dangerous state, his depositions were taken by J. F. M'Arthur, Esq., J.P. He has continued in a rather precarious state ever since; the other slugs have not been extracted.

HIRED SERVANTS.—One Daniel Lynch was taken on a warrant, and brought before the Bench charged with losing several sheep, the property of John Morphy, Esq., J.P., Bungonia, and afterwards absconding. Lynch pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to two months' imprisonment.

TWO RUNAWAYS.—The prisoner Murray, who some time ago got away from Constable Carey, at Marulan, was, in company with one James Riley, forwarded from the Yass district. The latter has been four years illegally at large.

APPREHENSION OF A FORGER.—A person named Stallard, said to be secretary to Bishop Polding, made his appearance in this district some few days ago, and shortly after started on his way to Port Phillip by way of Yass; on the day after his leaving the town, our Chief Constable received a warrant for his apprehension, by which it appeared he was charged with a forgery committed in Sydney on the Bank of New South Wales. The Post Office being closed, Mr. M'Alister started off a constable to Yass, where Stallard was taken into custody, and is on his way down from that place under escort.

LOAD OF WOOL DESTROYED BY FIRE.—On Monday last, a load of wool, belonging to Geo. Shelly, Esq., J.P., Tumut, was destroyed by fire, when camping on the little plain about three miles beyond Yass. We have not heard the particulars, but it is said that the person in charge having lighted a fire, having gone to look after his bullocks, it spread all round the dray with great rapidity, and that the dray and nearly all the wool was destroyed.

VISIT OF THE BISHOP OF SYDNEY.—The Bishop is expected to arrive here to-morrow, and hold a confirmation in St. Saviour's on the 13th instant. It has been said that he will consecrate the burial ground at this visit, but we have no certain information on the subject. We believe his Lordship, who will proceed to the squatting districts, has postponed his journey for a week.

ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday morning last, a youth belonging to the family of Mr. Dargan was thrown from a spirited horse in Montague-street; he was immediately carried into the Medical Hall, when Dr. Waugh examined him, and though he received severe injury he was not considered to be in danger.

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS.—Hitherto the mail to Lake George, Bungendore, &c., has been conveyed by a man on horseback; but we believe Brumey, that used to drive the mail on the Yass road, who started a conveyance for carrying the mail, and also passengers. We hope this increased instance of public accommodation will meet with encouragement from all on that line of road.

WESLEYAN CHAPEL.—The customary meeting was held by this religious body, which assembled in the above chapel on occasion of the coming in of the new year. In course of the same day (the 1st January) there was a public tea meeting, which was very numerously attended; in addition to the address delivered by the ministers of the Wesleyan communion, the Rev. W. Ross, of the Scotch Kirk, was present, and also delivered an address. On the subsequent day, about eighty children connected with the Sunday School held in the same chapel, had a treat given them, which they all seemed to enjoy to perfect satisfaction, but the following Sunday verified the saying that, "in the midst of life we are in death," one of these same little children was carried into the same chapel, he having died the day before, and was followed by the same little band to his last resting place on the first Sunday of the new year; according to the custom of that body, hymns were sung on the way to the place of interment.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—There was an examination of the children attending the Sunday School held in the Baptist Chapel on the 31st ultimo, when there was a large attendance of all the Protestant denominations. The children were supplied with refreshments suitable for the season of the year.

INQUEST.—There was an inquest held on the 30th ultimo, at Catter Walley, on the body of a settler named Donald M'Donald, when it appeared that deceased and some of his relatives had been paying a visit to a friend about ten miles distant, and when returning was driving a cart in which there were some women; but not doing so properly, he was advised to exchange places with Ewan M'Lachlene, who was riding, and having done so, he galloped ahead, when he came in contact with a tree, and received such an amount of injury that he lingered in great pain from Tuesday evening till Saturday, when he died. Verdict, accidentally killed.

MORETON BAY.

JANUARY 10.—The Eagle's detention in Sydney of only two or three days beyond her usual time of departure, has caused the Company's stores to become filled with wool, so much so that the Agent has been compelled to hire one adjoining. There are about 500 bales awaiting shipment, and it continues to arrive very fast, in consequence of the fineness of the weather and the roads being in good order. There is a great outcry for more vessels; some of the finest of the sailing vessels have been compelled to leave the trade, owing to the competition in the rates of freight; but owing to the immense increase in the trade of this place, half a dozen steamers will not next year be able to clear away the produce consigned to the Sydney market. The calculation of wool alone this year is placed at 6000 bales, independent of some 1500 or 2000 from Wide Bay, making it one of the most important coasting trades in the whole of the Australian colonies.

The weather has been very warm the last week or ten days, unaccompanied with any thunder, such as may be generally looked for at this season of the year; in fact it is a remarkable circumstance that we have been visited only two or three times with thunder, and that only partially. The thermometer stood yesterday 94 in the shade in the cool draught.

TRANSPORTATION MEETING.—The squatters' meeting, to advocate the resumption of transportation to these districts, takes place this day at Ipswich. I shall forward you the particulars in my next, and am glad to say the friends of social order will muster pretty strongly upon the occasion. Brisbane has spoken out, and I have no doubt Ipswich will not be found wanting in opposition to this monster evil.

ROBBERY.—A Mr. Marcus, who came from Sydney a short time since in the Tamar steamer, with a lot of goods for sale in this district, met with a serious loss on the evening of Tuesday last; his room at the St. Patrick public-house having been entered during his temporary absence, the lid of his trunk forced, and about £65 in cheques and orders abstracted therefrom. No clue has yet been obtained as to the thief or thieves, but as some of the orders are likely to be identified, we are in hopes the perpetrators of the robbery will not escape detection. A reward of £5 has been offered for the apprehension of the offender.

TWOPENNY STAMPS.—The enquiries at the Brisbane Post Office for stamps for up-country use, are met with the simple answer—"None on hand." Surely this is too bad. Are the up-country folks to pay double postage, will-ye nil-ye? £20 worth would find ready sale at every post office throughout these districts.

ORIGINAL CORRESPONDENCE.

THE CONVICT QUESTION.

To the Editors of the Sydney Morning Herald.

GENTLEMEN,—You have shown yourselves to be the unflinching friends of the colony by your exposure of the evils which a renewal of transportation will inflict on it.

Your endeavours to stay the plague have been unsuccessful. Convicts deeply steeped in crime, but whitewashed by the pernicious evil spirit of what is termed British philanthropy are being let loose amongst us—planted in our country towns and villages. But if the indulgent laws of the mother country, now spare the lives of hardened villains who formerly received their due at the hands of the hangman—is this colony to bear the consequences of such an experiment? Is the rising population to become polluted by such a horrible impregnation?

The Governor and his Council may feel themselves excused from the dreadful responsibility by fixing it on my Lord Grey, but surely when his Lordship decided on sending this filthy poison to New South Wales, he relied on the authorities (the doctors) here administering it in such doses as should mitigate its effect on the enduring patient. The City of Sydney and the County of Cumberland forsooth, have such delicate constitutions that the medicine would be too strong for either, or your agitation has spared your county, and its capital city; and gentlemen, as your influence is exercised for the general weal of the colony over all other public questions, pray in this important matter say a word to protect the country towns from the pollution of convicts.

WOOL MARKETS.

(From the Mark Lane Express, Sept. 17.)

BRITISH WOOL.

LEEDS, Sept. 13.—A moderate business has been done this week, and prices remain quite firm.

SOUTH DEVON.—There is a good demand for yolk wool. Trade continues brisk. Workmen are busily employed, and their wages have been advanced. Price of yolk wools, 6d. per lb.

YORK, Thursday.—Our market was very thinly supplied with wool to-day, there being only fifty sheets shown, the whole of which sold at the prices of last market-day.

LIVERPOOL, SEPT. 15.—SCOTCH.—The demand for Laid Highland Wool is still limited as well as for white. In crossed and Cheviots there is little doing. The late clip is coming to hand more freely, and with a better selection we shall no doubt have more doing.

FOREIGN.—The public sales commenced in London on 13th inst., at which the quantity to be offered will be little short of 40,000 bales: so far the attendance is good, and prices obtained fully equal to the last July sales There has been a fair business doing here this week in washed Peruvian.

Imports for the week	720 bales.
Previously this year	36,921 ,,

FOREIGN WOOL.

CITY, MONDAY.—The arrivals of wool have been larger within the last few days, and comprise some quantity from Australia, and other colonies. From the Cape there is about 2,000 bales, exclusive of Algoa Bay, which sends 652 bales. Van Diemen's Land has furnished some few hundred bales, Taganrog 435 bales, Port Phillip about 2,000, and Bombay 600 to 700 bales, Germany, &c., contributing the rest.

The public sales commenced on Thursday evening, at the Hall of Commerce, and full 40,000 bales will be put up. The series will last for four weeks, and at present is going off fairly.

At the first sale, the quantity offered by Messrs. Thomas Southey and Son was 1,579 bales; Port Phillip, 672 bales, sold at 1s. 6d. for first ewes, and 1s. 2½d. for fourth; sheep's, 11½d.; for pieces, up to 1s. 5½d. for the better sorts; lambs' 1s. 1d. to 1s. 5½d., and scoured 1s. 3d. to 1s. 8d. per lb. South Australian brought 11d. to 1s. 3d. per lb. for sheep's, and 9½d. to 1s. 5½d. for lambs', the highest price being for scoured samples, and about 8½d. to 9d. per lb. for greasy. There were 388 bales put up. Australian, 416 bales, realized 10½d. to 1s. 4d. for sheep's, and 1s. 1½d. to 1s. 5½d. for scoured do.; lambs' went at 1s. 2d. to 1s. 5d., being also scoured where the highest prices were paid. Portland Bay, 103 bales, brought 10½d. to 1s. 3d. for sheep's, and 1s. 0½d. to 1s. 4½d. for lambs'.

On Friday, Messrs. Marsh and Edenborough put up 1,691 bales. There were 1,036 bales of Port Phillip, which realized 1s. 1½d. to 1s. 3½d. for sheep's, clean, 1s. 2d. to 1s. 6d. for lambs', 1s. 4d. to 1s. 9d. for scoured sheep's, and 1s. 8½d. to 2s. 1½d. for snow-white and scoured lambs'. Australian, 655 bales, ranged from 10½d. to 1s. 5d. for clean sheep's, and 1s. 3d. to 1s. 6½d. for lambs'.

Messrs. Simes and Co. sold a large quantity of Australian, &c., on Saturday afternoon, and obtained full prices.

LEEDS, Sept. 13.—We have had only a quiet market for foreign wools during the past week. Another series of the London auctions commenced last evening; the attendance of buyers, we learn, was good, and the rates equal to the average of the last July sales.

WOOL MARKETS.

(From the Mark Lane Express, September 24.)

BRITISH WOOL.

LEEDS, September 21.—There has been rather more demand for wools this week, especially of a deep-grown and half-bred character. Prices are firm.

LIVERPOOL, September 22.—SCOTCH.—The arrivals of all kinds of Scotch of the new clip is on a fair scale, and rather more business has been done in Laid Highland, at about our quotations, if anything rather in favour of the buyers. White is not much inquired for. There is only a moderate demand for Crossed and Cheviot wool, at our quotations.

FOREIGN.—As is usual when the public sales are progressing in London, we are never very active here, most of the trade being up there.

Imports for the week	2492 bales.

FOREIGN WOOL.

CITY, MONDAY.—The imports of wool last week included 3,179 bales from Port Phillip, 104 from Bombay, 1,352 from the Cape of Good Hope, 42 from Germany, 1,739 from Sydney, 244 from Spain, and a few parcels from Jamaica, &c.

The public sales are going off steadily, a very small portion having been withdrawn, and prices appear to be rather fuller in some instances, though no decided alteration can be noted. The sales since our last have progressed as follows—

At Messrs. Simes' two sales held since our last, Australian clean sheep's has realized 10d. to 1s. 6d., and 10d. to 1s. 2d. and 1s. 10d for lambs'; South Australian has realized 10d. to 1s. 4d. for clean sheep's, and 1s. to 1s. 2d. for lambs'; Port Phillip 11d. to 1s. 9½d., and 1s. 11½d. in one or two cases; Cape 10½d. to 1s. 2d. About 3,400 bales were offered by them.

On Monday, Mr. H. P. Hughes put up 1,950 bales, and obtained for Australian 1s. to 1s. 5d., and 1s. 1d. to 1s. 4d. for lambs'; Por Phillip 1s. 1d. to 1s. 6d. for sheep's, and 1s. 0½d. to 1s. 3d. for lambs'; Cape 11½d. to 1s. 1d.

Messrs. Southey and Son, on Tuesday, sold 1,880 bales; Port Phillip went at 1s. to 1s. 10d. for sheep's, and at 1s. 1d. to 1s. 8d. for lambs' clean; South Australian 8d. to 1s. 3½d.

On Thursday, Messrs. C. and J. D. Jacomb put up 1,821 bales. Of this 701 bales were Port Phillip, and sold at 9d. to 1s. 5d. for sheep's, and 10d. to 1s. 5½d. for lambs'; 546 bales South Australian brought 9d. to 1s. 2½d. for sheep's, 10d. to 1s. 3½d. for lambs', and 7d. to 11½d. for greasy; Portland Bay, 146 bales brought 1s. 2d. to 1s. 3d. for clean sheep's, and 1s. 1½d. to 1s. 5½d. for lambs'; Cape, 11 bales, ranged from 1s. 1d. to 1s. 2d. for lambs'; and Australian, 377 bales, brought 8d. to 1s. 6d. for sheep's, and 1s. 4d. for lambs'.

Mr. William Hall, on the same day, put up 735 bales of foreign; brook-washed Odessa realized 10d. to 1s. 1d., and Merino do. 9½d. to 1s. 8½d. per lb.

Messrs. Marsh and Edenborough, on Friday, offered 1701 bales. South Australian, the produce of the South Australian Company's estates, realized 1s. 0½d. to 1s. 3d. for clean sheep's, 1s. to 1s. 3d. for lamb's, 7d. to 11½d. for greasy, and 1s. 1½d. for fleece; Australian sheep's ranged from 7d. to 1s. 4½d., part being withdrawn; Van Deimen's Land sold at 9d. to 1s. 4½d. for sheep's clean, and at 1s. 1d. to 1s. 7d. for lambs'; Cape brought 10½d. to 1s. 1½d. for handwashed, 1s. to 1s. 4d. for clean sheep's, and 1s. 1d. to 1s. 3d. for lambs'.

On Saturday, Messrs. Thomas Southey and Son put up 1,358 bales. Australian went as high as 1s. 9½d. and 1s. 10d. for sheep's superior scoured. South Australian touched 1s. 1d. for first lambs', and Port Phillip 1s. 7½d. for first scoured. Algoa Bay (Cape) went up to 1s. 1½d. for scoured.

LEEDS, Sept. 21.—There has been only a dull market again for foreign wools this week; prices however remain firm, the prospects of the trade being generally considered encouraging.

BRESLAU, Sept. 19.—Since our last report business has lost nothing of its previous vivacity. Very extensive transactions took place in fine Silesian clips at from 75 to 85 thalers, in lamb's at from 70 to 90 thalers, as well as in low Polish and Russian wools at from 50 to 52 thalers; good refuse was very much requested at from 50 to 58 thalers, and skins at 55 to 65 thalers per cwt. The chief purchasers were again French, Austrian, and Saxon Houses, as well as numerous country manufacturers. The prices of the finer descriptions were 3 to 5 per cent. higher, those of the lower ones something less. The quantity sold in all was about 2,500 cwts. The character of the approaching autumn market, beginning at the end of the present month, will very much depend upon the result of the present Leipzig fair, where great stocks of woollen manufactures are expected to make their appearance. At Berlin there continues equally a great briskness in this line, and nearly 12,000 cwts. have been sold during the space of four weeks. Good clothing wools are principally wanted; prices in the same proportion as here. Inland manufacturers and spinners, as well as English, Hamburgh, and French houses, were the chief buyers—even a Spanish firm made some acquisitions. Reports from Vienna state that fine and superfine wools are in great demand, at high prices; middling and low ones on the contrary proportionately neglected, in consequence of large arrivals from Hungaria.—Gunsburg, Woolbroker.

THE TALLOW TRADE.

LONDON, Monday, September 24.—Owing to the increasing stock, our market s ill continues heavy. During last week, upwards of 9000 casks arrived chiefly from Russia, and the supply in warehouse is slow—34,079 casks. Prices to-day ruled from 3d. to 6d. per cwt. lower than on Monday last. P. Y. C. on the spot is selling at 37s. 6d. to 37s.; and for forward delivery, 37s. per cwt. Town tallow, 37s. per cwt. net cash; rough fat, 2s. 1½d. per 8 lbs. Letters from St. Petersburg represent the trade there as very inactive.

ARE CAPITALISTS NOT TO DO WHAT THEY LIKE WITH THEIR OWN?

(From the Times, September 22.)

THERE is an inconsistency which is peculiar to platform agitation. Men are so habituated by it to substitute names for things—phrases for meanings—that they often contradict by their conduct the whole tenour of their writings and speeches. The Peace Society is a great stumbling-block in this way. Its topics are so obvious that they betray men into a fatal fluency; and the cheers which this fluency provokes excite an ardour which is quite incompatible with the subject of the orator's eulogy. Whoever has heard any of the great guns at Exeter-hall firing away in glorification of peace might have imagined at first that it was feu-de-joie in honour of war. The attitude and voice of Mr. Bright, for example, are those of a bargeman challenging a prize fighter, or a navvy defying a policeman. He sings of peace as gently as a lion might roar of love. And it is curious that the most warlike adjurations and denunciations always "tell" the most with a peace audience.

It appears that this society is to hold a great gathering in London some day next month. Mr. Cobden and Mr. Burritt will attend to testify the pacific disposition of the French people, and the consistency of M. Girardin. Mr. Elihu Burritt will vouch for the non-aggressive sentiments of the citizens of the United States. Doubtless illustrious Germans and Italians will be present to bear witness to the unqualified tranquillity which reigns in Austria, Rome, and Lombardy, and to repudiate, on behalf of their countrymen, all aspirations for vague nationalities and the predominance of castes. The Prince of Canino, too, may likewise be there, to favour the company with a practical commentary on the difference between the amusement of mining the Vatican or creating a Republic, and that of comparing the little blue magpie of Spain with the little blue magpie of Siberia. And the audience will cheer, stamp, and applaud, just as they would have cheered and stamped had they met to sympathize with Hungarian warriors or Polish Revolutionists!

That nothing might be wanting to give it all the éclat of inconsistency, Mr. Cobden writes a sort of advertisement for the meeting. The text upon which he writes is the prospectus lately issued by the Austrian Government for raising a new loan. Now, this is one of the most ordinary commercial transactions possible. It is, as a commercial, a pacific transaction. It is one in which merchants, bankers, and brokers, are eminently concerned. It is a mere matter of trade. As such, it should provoke no man's bile; least of all that of a man who regards buying and selling, lending and borrowing, as the ends and objects of human existence. But Mr. Cobden—strange to say—is highly indignant that the Austrian Government should propose to borrow money; and still more that it should issue a prospectus of its intentions in Great Britain; but, most of all, that any British subject should be thought likely to lend. Accordingly, he calls on "the friends of peace and disarmament to raise their voices in condemnation of the system" of borrowing money and paying interest for it. In other words, a vast number of persons who have no money to lend, and would be unable to borrow any, are to be convoked for the purpose of raising a silly cry against certain commercial negotiations in which they have no concern whatsoever. And this is done by way of encouraging the pursuits of peace and the triumphs of commerce!

This, of course, is very foolish and very ridiculous. But it is worse than this. Mr. Cobden's letter does not only suggest that which is false, but recommends that which is unjust. We leave it to men of knowledge and experience to pronounce upon the political sagacity which comprehends in one class the Magyar and the Italian characters, or to the former people to resent the ignorance which would confound them with the latter. Mr. Cobden set out upon his travels late in life, and may therefore be forgiven for knowing less about these matters that men much younger in years. But what shall be said about the tone of menace with with he ventures to insult the whole mercantile body? "A public meeting," Mr. Cobden writes, "should be immediately called in London to denounce this attempt to levy upon the earnings of peaceful industry the means of paying Haynau and his Croates for their butcheries in Brescia and their atrocities in Hungary." If this means anything, it means that private capitalists are to be deterred by public intimidation from laying out their money as they think proper. Of all the bigoted proposals that ever issued from the pen of a public man, this is the most bigotted. And its author—of all people in the world—is the champion and victor of the free trade cause; the man whose watchword has been laissez-faire—who has expounded the doctrine of free labour, free trade, and free capital till he was hoarse. What a change is here, my masters! But three short years since, and there was hardly a platform or hustings in the kingdom that did not ring with indignat condemnation of the shameful policy which prevented a man from sending his goods to the best market. The manufacturers were oppressed by cruel and unjust legislation. The citizen was oppressed by it. Capital was hampered, labour was fettered by it. It was the most tyrannical, the most iniquitous, the most impious policy to restrict the free circulation of commodities and labour. There was no mischief which it did not cause. It was at the bottom of the Swing fires, the Chartist riots, and the Essex or Lincolnshire poisonings. Now, after three years, Mr. Cobden finds it convenient to change his tone. That which it was criminal for a Parliament of landowners to do to the merchants or manufacturers, it is perfectly pardonable in a motley crowd of persons who are neither manufacturers nor landowners to do toward the capitalists of England. The money of a capitalist is his stock-in-trade. He has a right to sell it where best he can, and for such profit as he can, so long as he contravenes no laws of his country. Any London merchant or banker is perfectly at liberty to negotiate a loan with any foreign power, just as much as any Manchester or Stockport manufacturer is at liberty to send his calicoes to whatever foreign country he likes. Hitherto there has been no doubt on such a point. But now we have a new era and a new code of international law. A loan is to be no longer a thing of debtor and creditor, of principal and interest; but of sentiment. It is no longer a matter of business between two parties—the borrower and the lender. It is made the subject of public curiosity, public disquisition, and public censure. Meetings are threatened, with the avowed object of "swelling a chorus of indignation" at a man's obedience to the first law of common sense and political economy. We had thought the platform system had gone far enough already. It has corrupted the language—it has vitiated the taste—it has warped the judgments of Englishmen; but up to this moment we were not aware that it attempted to meddle with their money affairs, and dispose of the contents of their coffers. Mr. Cobden introduces a new epoch into its annals.

And for what purpose is all this prying, bullying, and indignation to be expended? For peace! For peace, forsooth! Is the peace of Europe to be furthered by fettering the hands of European capitalists? Is the peace of Europe to be furthered by raising an agitation in the metropolis of England against a Power with which England, if not in alliance, is on friendly terms? Is the peace of Europe to be promoted by a passive sympathy with the unknown champions of a misapprehended and unexamined cause? Is it to be promoted by the speeches of men who can safely vent their good wishes through the columns of the press at a distance of 800 miles from the scene of war, but who devoutly eschew hard blows and gunshot wounds, whether for Hungarians, or Italians, or any other people? Is it to be promoted by inspiring a conquered people with the delusive hope that the drab-coloured gentry of Exeter-hall will fight for them and pay for them as well as pray and speak for them? Is it to be promoted by keeping alive the embers of a decrepit hostility and perpetuating the miseries of a hopeless contest? Is it to be promoted by weakening and dividing the only empire that stands between Eastern Europe and anarchy? Is it to be promoted by leaving Bohemia and Hungary, the Tchechs, the Sclaves, and the Magyars, to enter on a cycle of national wars? Is it to be promoted by leaving the people of Lombardo-Venetian Italy to cut each other's throats in some stupid and treacherous attempt to affect what they call the regeneration of Italy? Is it to be promoted by fostering feudalism in Hungary, Communism in Italy, and national jealousies in Austrian Germany? If it could be furthered by any of these means, Mr. Cobden has hit upon the best policy for effecting this. But, as it is not, we can only say that his letter alike offends common sense, common justice, and political economy.

ITALIAN REFUGEES.

The following correspondence between Mr. Joseph Hume and Lord John Russell, on the subject of the Italian Refugees expelled from Malta, has been published this week.

Mr. Hume to Lord John Russell:—

"My Lord—As Chairman, for the time being, of a Committee of Members of Parliament and other gentlemen, which has been formed in aid of the Italian (Roman) refugees in this country, I am desired, in their name, to address your Lordship, as the head of her Majesty's Government, with respect to the recent conduct of the Governor of Malta in refusing an asylum to the refugees from Rome.

"The broad facts of the case, as brought to the attention of the Government and the House of Commons on the closing day of the late session of Parliament, (facts which have been corroborated and developed in greater detail by subsequent information,) are more than sufficient warrant to address your Lordship, without reference to any individual cases.

"The Governor of Malta has thought fit to refuse a landing at Malta to political refugees from the Roman States, and who took ship for that island, relying with confidence on passports visèd by the English Consul at Civita Vecchia or at Rome.

"Had there been reasonable cause to apprehend any misconduct on the part of these unarmed refugees, the garrison of Malta was surely a place where sufficient security could have been taken against such a contingency; whilst, in considering the probabilities of so unworthy a return for the hospitality they claimed, it should not have been forgotten by a British citizen so high in office as the Governor of Malta, that the unfortunate wanderers were of the number of those defenders of the city of Rome who had won the respect of the civilized world by an observance of law and order and of constitutional government within its walls, as remarkable as the valour and humanity they displayed in its defence.

"Amidst all the diversities of opinion, in this and in former times, concerning the foreign policy of our country, there is one rule of conduct which has been invariably observed, and has met with our universal and heartfelt assent, namely,—that of extending a generous and fearless hospitality to political exiles of every class, from every country, and of every cause. It is a bitter mortification to find that rule of conduct in the present instance disregarded, and the character of this country for hospitality needlessly sullied, by an officer bearing her Majesty's commission, and in command of one of the strongest garrisons of the British empire.

"The Committee ventures to express a confident hope that her Majesty's Government, if it have not already done so, will visit with marked disapprobation this discreditable act of its representative in Malta, so as to manifest to the world that the British Government in no way countenances conduct which is as foreign to our national character as it is disgraceful to the British name.

"I am, &c.
"JOSEPH HUME.

"Aug. 31."

Lord John Russell to Mr. Hume.

"Balmoral, Sept. 5, 1849.

"Sir,—I had the honour of receiving your letter of the 31st of August, written in your capacity of Chairman of a Committee of Members of Parliament and others, which has been formed in aid of the Italian (Roman) refugees in this country, complaining of the conduct of the Governor of Malta.

"Lord Grey has sent me all the papers which have reference to the conduct of Mr. More O'Ferrall, Governor of Malta, to the Italians who sought refuge.

"It has been our practice, as you truly observe, 'to extend a generous and fearless hospitality to political exiles of every class, from every country, and in every cause.'

"You may remember, that on the occasion of the French revolution of February, 1848, when you asked me a question in the House of Commons, I adverted to this honourable practice, and expressed my determination to adhere to it.

"I may observe, that the refugees in this country at present are 'of every class, from every country, and in every cause'; and a proof is thus afforded how well the usual rule has been observed.

"The Governor of Malta, however, was of opinion that, although the refugees from Rome (not Roman refugees, in great part) might safely be allowed to proceed to England, he could not be responsible for their remaining in Malta. They were, therefore, detained on board ship for some ten days or a fortnight, with the exception of the sick, and of the women and children, who were allowed to land.

"You are probably aware that there has existed during the past year a sort of circulating society of revolutionists, who have appeared sometimes in Paris, sometimes in Berlin, sometimes in Baden, and who were especially in great strength and numbers at Rome.

"It is not consistent with the peace and good government of Malta, although it may be consistent with the peace and security of London, to have numerous bands of this revolutionary association at Malta.

"It would be as pleasant an occupation to them to stir up dissensions in Malta as to head a riot in Berlin or in Baden.

"One of these refugees was avowedly only taking Malta in his way to Venice, to assist in defending that city against the besieging troops.

"After all, what has been the hardship inflicted? These persons were in no danger of their lives while they were on board a French vessel. They were not detained longer than a vessel put in quarantine. They took their passages to England, or to Greece if they chose. They were prevented from disturbing Malta, and that was all.

"Lord Grey has therefore, with my full concurrence, expressed his approbation of the course pursued by the Governor of Malta.

"I have the honour to be, &c,
J. RUSSELL.

"P.S. I presume there is no doubt of the legality of the course pursued by the Governor of Malta?"

Crossing the Alps in a Balloon.—M. Arban, the aeronaut, ascended in his balloon from the Chateau de Fleurs (Vauxhall at Marseilles) at half-past six in the evening of the 2nd instant, and alighted at the village of Piou Forte, near Turin, the following morning at half-past two, having accomplished the distance, about 400 miles, in eight hours. The particulars of this voyage are related by M. Arban as follows:—I ascended from the Chateau de Fleurs on Sunday evening, the 2nd instant, at half-past six. At eight I was over the Wood of Esteret, where I ascertained I was at a height of 4090 metres. The temperature of the air was cold, but dry; my centigrade thermometer marked four degrees below zero. The wind was south-west, and sent me over Nice. For nearly two hours surrounded by very dense clouds; my cloak no longer sufficed to keep me warm; I suffered much from cold feet. I nevertheless determined to proceed, and to traverse the Alps, from which I knew I was not far distant. My provision of ballast was enough to raise me above the highest peaks. The cold gradually increased, the wind became steady, and the moon lighted me like the sun. I was at the foot of the Alps; the snows, cascades, rivers all, were sparkling; the ravines and the rocks produced masses of darkness, which served as shadows to the gigantic picture. The wind now interrupted the regularity of my course. I was occasionally obliged to ascend, in order to pass over the peaks. I reached the summit of the Alps at eleven o'clock, and as the horizon became clear and my course regular, I began to think of supping. I was now at an elevation of 4000 metres. It was indispensably necessary for me to pursue my journey and reach Piedmont. Chaos only was under me, and to alight in these regions was impossible. After supper, I threw my empty bottle into the snow beneath, where possibly some adventurous traveller will one day find it, and be led to conclude that another before him had explored the same desert regions. At half-past one in the morning I was over Mount Misso. There the Durance and the Po take their source. I reconnoitered the position, and discovered the magnificent plains of the mountain. Before this certainty, a singular optical delusion, occasioned by the shining of the moon upon the snow, almost made me think myself over the open sea. But as the south-west wind had not ceased to blow, I was convinced that I could not be over the sea. The stars confirmed the accuracy of my compass, and the appearance of Mount Blanc satisfied me that I must be approaching Turin. Mount Blanc to my left, on a level with the spot in which I was, being far above the clouds, resembled an immense block of crystal sparkling with a thousand fires. At a-quarter to three, Mount Viso, which was behind me, proved to me that I was in the neighbourhood of Turin. I determined to alight, which I did without any difficulty, having ballast enough to go much further. I alighted near a large farm-yard, where I was surrounded by several watch-dogs, from whose caresses I was protected by my cloak. Their barking awakened the peasants, who were more surprised than frightened at seeking me. They admitted me to their house, informed me that it was half-past two, and that I was in the village of Pion-forte, near Stubini, six kilometers from Turin. I passed the remainder of the night at the farm-house, and in the morning the peasants accompanied me to the mayor, who delivered me a certificate attesting my arrival, &c. After packing up my balloon and car, I set out for Turin, where I arrived at nine in the morning. I immediately sat down to write to the director of the Chateau de Fleurs, in order to relieve the anxiety of my wife, friends, and the Marseilles public, who might be interested about me. I then repaired to M. Bois le Comte, the French Ambassador, who gave me a passport. At eleven, the same morning, I attended the church of la Madre di Dio, where a funeral service was performed in honour of Charles Albert's death. This ceremony was followed by a review of the National Guard. In the evening I went to the Theatre d'Angennes, where Sigier played Louis XI. I could hardly believe that the evening before I was at the Chateau de Fleurs, at Marseilles, 140 leagues off.

Vienna.—A banquet in honour of Marshal Radetzky was given in the Ridotto Hall at Vienna on the 22nd September. The hall-panels were inscribed with the names of the scores of battles in which Radetzsky has been concerned, from those of Voltri and the Trebbia in 1799, to those of the Lombard campaings in 1848 and 1849. The Marshal himself took the centre of the table: on his right was Haynau; and next to him, in singular contrast to the soldier's-iron aspect, the venerable Servian Patriarch Rajachich, with silvery beard and picturesque costume. On the Marshal's left was Prince Schwarzenberg; and then the Ban Jellachich. About 400 guests, and upwards of 1000 lady spectators were present. The toast of "Father Radetzky" was received with "tremendous cheering." The veteran returned thanks in a voice inaudible from the excited applause which was maintained. Haynau was "loudly cheered." But the toast "The chivalrous Ban Jellachich" raised such sounds as were "never before produced by human throat"; and the ladies agitated themselves with applause in a manner "no less flattering to the Ban as a man than as a soldier."

Rome.—The Constitutionnel of Florence publishes the following letter from Rome of the 17th:—"Two questions engross the attention of the people of the Roman States at this moment—the political and the financial question. The solution of the political one will take a long time, because there is obstinacy on both sides. Pius IX. will concede the statute in the end, but perhaps when it will be too late. The great evil, well-informed people say, comes from the men France sends to Gaëta. Neither generals nor lay diplomatists are listened to there. Were France to send a dignitary of the Church to the Pope, as, for example, the Archbishop of Paris, all would be settled within twenty-four hours. The financial question is very different. It is shocking to see such a penury of coin money. All the silver the French spend here immediately disappears from circulation, and many shopkeepers cannot give you change even in notes of twenty biocchi (twenty sous). The notes of the Republic lose 18 per cent., besides the reduction fixed by the Government, without any hopes of a rise. It is true that in the higher circles a loan is spoken of as concluded, or nearly so. This loan is to be applied to the withdrawal from circulation of all the small notes of the Republic, but the rumour of this loan gains but little credit. Bankers do not lend to uncertain governments. When the Holy Father shall have positively declared his intention as to the form of government a loan will be more likely to be obtained."

Operation of the Poor-law.—The rates about to be levied in a western county, Clare, and in a midland county, Kildare, show with what comparative lightness the burden is felt in those districts where employment is given by landlords, and where the minute subdivision of the soil has not been encouraged by reckless mismanagement. At the last meeting of the Ennis board of guardians, Sir Lucius O'Brien, Bart., presiding, Mr. Lynch, the poor-law inspector, proposed a rate for the next six months, including £2200 for the proportion of the rate-in-aid on the Ennis Union and its debts, amounting to £17,000. The rates on the various electoral divisions vary very considerably; for instance, there is 20s. 7d. on Inagh, 14s. 3d. on Clondegad, 11s. 0½d. on Kilmaly, 9s. 11d. on Clonlea, 8s. 11d. on Ennis, 7s. 5d. on Kilehreest, 4s. 10½d. on Dysart, 3s. 8d., on Newmarket, 3s. 3½d. on Bunratty, and it is only 11d. in the pound on Kilconry. These rates were vehemently objected to by several of the guardians, on the ground of the exhausted state of the resources of the union; and Mr. Healy proposed that no higher rate than 3s. 4d. in the pound should be sanctioned, which would be equivalent to a rate of 6s, on account of the great depreciation of property in the union. Ultimately the scale of rating proposed by the poor-law inspector was adopted, including the rate-interest a d, but without including the present debts of the union, as one of the guardians truly stated "it would be quite impossible at present to collect a rate sufficient to meet all their liabilities." The scale thus modified was adopted by a majority of one; so that the new rate on the electoral division of Inagh is to be 7s. 6d. in the pound, instead of 20s. 7d., and the other divisions are reduced proportionably. It will remain for the Poor-law Commissioners to sanction this lower rate, or to require the higher scale proposed by the inspector. In all probability, the commissioners, under the circumstances, will assent to the reduced rate, which, on account of the distressed condition of both landlords and farmers, and the difficulty of obtaining rents, it will be difficult enough to collect. Turning to the union of Athy, which embraces parts of the counties of Kildare and Queen's County, I find that the new rate, including all the liabilities of the union, is not higher than 4s. 4d. in any electoral division; indeed, it amounts to that sum in only one division; the average is about 2s., and there are three electoral divisions where it is only one shilling in the pound, after a protracted famine, which has nearly ruined many of the western and southern unions, whilst Kildare is much more lightly taxed than most unions in England, from the causes I have mentioned.

Indian Troubles in Florida.—From all that we can gather concerning the recent troubles with the Indians in Florida, we are very much disposed to believe that the red skins inhabiting that peninsula have made up their minds to carry on a game of murder, pillage, and rapine, similar to what they indulged in a few years ago. It is now demonstrated that large numbers of them are engaged in hostility to the settlers, and unless they be promptly put down, the probability is that we shall have another Seminole war, that will not only result in the destruction of the lives and health of a large number of officers and soldiers of our gallant army, who certainly need some repose after their arduous campaign in Mexico, but also in the exhaustion, to no purpose, of a vast sum of money. We trust and hope there will be no child's play adopted towards these hostile Indians, but that every means calculated to reduce them to subjection or to destroy them will be promptly adopted. No one knows better than General Taylor of the innumerable acts of folly and imprudence that were committed under the administration of Mr. Van Buren in the war with the Seminoles under his presidency, and we are sure that if the hero of Buena Vista had been at the head of the Government in those days, the campaign would have been brought to a close much earlier than it was, and with much less expense and sacrifice of life. We, therefore, confidently expect that the corruption—the wilful and designed procrastination of the former Seminole war, will not be repeated in the present instance. Notwithstanding the unfavourable situation of the country, and the topographical difficulties which our troops must contend against, we are of opinion that the Government, by a judicious use of its resources, can very speedily bring this new Indian war to a close.—New York Herald.

Cheapening Dwellings for the Poor.—It is supposed that one-fourth of the cost of a dwelling which lets for half-a crown or three shillings a week, is caused by the expense of the title-deeds and the tax on wood and bricks used in its construction. Of course the owner of such property must be remunerated, and he, therefore, charges seven-pence halfpenny or nine-pence a week to cover these burdens. Government affect to regret that the working classes are crowded together, which looks very like hypocrisy, as it is in their power to prevent it by reducing the price of buildings, and, consequently, lessening rents.—The Builder.
